The University City Historical Society promotes awareness of the history and architectural character of University City. We strive to:

- Enhance the heritage of West Philadelphia and its rich abundance of architecture, culture, history, and scientific riches.
- To undertake and encourage multiple facets of historical research and preservation.
- To provide a forum to all who are interested in the past, present and future development of the University City community.
- Protect our architectural heritage and advocate for the built environment.

Activities of the University City Historical Society include:

- Collection of materials related to the history and development of West Philadelphia.

- Recognition of architectural and environmental stewardship through annual “Outstanding Preservation” and “Preservation Initiative Awards” and “Gift to the Streets” commendations.
- Sponsorship of historical house and walking tours, featuring the architectural wealth of University City.
- Creation of historic districts to protect the historic integrity of the neighborhoods of University City.
- Encouragement of historic preservation through workshops and education.
- Provide historic building markers.
- To inform the public about special topics related to the history of University City and its rich diversified heritage.
- Provide educational programs to highlight local history and preservation endeavors.

Membership Benefits include:

- Subscription to On The West Side, the society’s regular members’ newsletter.
- Access to UCHS members’ local Contractors/Suppliers List.
- Discounts to UCHS sponsored events, including house tours, workshops, date plaques, and publications.
- Admissions to special members events such as the annual Valentine’s Awards Tea in February.
- Support of preservation initiatives in West Philadelphia.
